

LET'S JOIN FORCES.

Work for a company that values your military experience.

Chase Plastics is a privately-owned company proudly based in the USA (Clarkston, Michigan). We distribute 35,000+ varieties of thermoplastics from leading manufacturers and global suppliers — with a laser focus on helping our customers boost efficiencies and profitability. That's why we especially value our military veterans and the many transferable skills they bring to our organization. As you consider your next career maneuver, we encourage you to consider Chase Plastics.
